Bill Arp Addresses Artemus Ward.

R ME, GA, September 1, 1865.

Artemus Ward, Showman:

IR—The reesun I write to you in partickler are kaus you are about al the man I know in all God's country," so called. For sum several weeks ave been wanting tu say sumthin. For sum sev- l years we rel s, so-called, but now late of said nty deceased, hav been tryin mity hard to do mthin. We didn't quite do it, and now its very inful, I assure you, to dry up all of a sudden and ke out like we wasn't thar.

My friend, I want to say sumthin. I suppose ere is no law agin thinkin, but thinkin don't help e. It don't let down my thermometer. I must plode my self generally so as to feel better. You e I'm tryin to harmonize. I'm tryin to soften own my feelings. I'm endeavoring to subjugate yself to the level of surroundin circumstances, so-alled. But I can't do it until I am allowed to say mthin. I want to quarrel with somebody and eu make friends. I aint no giant-killer. I aint no Norwegian bar. I aint no boar-constrikter; but I'll s horswaggled if the talkin and the writtin and the andering has got to be all done on one side any lon- er. Sum of your folks have got to dry up or turn ur folks loose. Its a blamed outrage, so-called.— Aint your editors got nothin else to do but to peck us, and squib at us, and crow over us? Is every an what can write a paragraf to consider us as bars a cage, and be always a jobbin at us to hear us owl? Now you see, my friend, that's what's dis- armonious, and do you jest tell 'em, one and all, e luribus unum, so-called, that if they don't stop it once, or turn us loose to say what we please, why e rebs, so-called, have unanimously and jointly and everally resolved to—to—to—think very hard of it —if not harder.

That's the way to talk it. I aint agwine to com- mit myself. I know when to put on the brakes.— aint agwine to say all I think like Mr. Etheridge, Mr. Aderrig, so-called. Nary time. No, sir. But I'll jest tell you, Artemus, and you may tell it your show. If we aint allowed to express our sen- iments, we can take it out in batin and hatin runs eavy in my family, sure. I hated a man so bad nce that all the hair cum off my head, and the man rowned himself in hog-waller that night. I kould p it agin, but you see I'm tryin to harmonize, to quiesce, to bekum kalm and sereen,

Now I suppose that, poetikally speaking,

"In Dixie's fall,
We sinned all,

But talkin the way I see it, a big feller and a lit- feller, so-called, got into a fite, and they fout and nt a long time, and everybody all round kep hol- ing hands off, but kep helpin the big feller, until ally the little feller caved in and hollered enuf.— made a bully fite, I tell you, Selah. Well, what the big feller do? take him by the hand and lp him up, and brush the dirt off his clothes?— , sur! but he kicked him arter he was down, and rowed mud on him, and drug him about and rubb- sand in his eyes, and now he's gwine about hunt- up his poor little property. Wants to confiskate so-called—Blame my jacket if it aint enuf to make ur head swim.

But I'm a good Union man—so-called. I ain't a ine to fire no more. I shan't vote for the next r. I ain't no gurilla. I've done tuk the oath, I'm gwine to keep it, but as for my bein subju- ed, and humilyated, and amalgamated, and ener- ed, as Mr. Chase says, it aint so—nary time.— in't ashamed of nuthin neither—ain't repentin— asking for no one horse, shot-wrought pardon. body needn't be playin priest around me. I ain't no twenty thousand dollars. Wish I had; I'd it to these poor widers and orfins. I'd fatten own numerous and interesting offspring in about minits and a half. They shouldn' eat roots and k branch water no longer. Poor, unfortunate s! to cum into this subloonary world at sich a . There's four or five of 'em that never saw a us nor a monkey show—never had a pocket e, nor a piece of cheese, nor a reesin. There is l Run Arp, and Harper's Ferry Arp, and Chicka- niny Arp that never seed the picters in a spelling k. I tell you, my friend, we are the poorest peo- on the face of the earth—but we are poor and oud. We made a bully fite, Selah! and the whole merikin nation ought to feel proud of it. It shows hat Amerikins can do when they think they are mposed on—"so called." Didn't our four fathers te, bleed and die about a little tax on tea, when not ne in a thousan drunk it? Bekaus they sukseeded, asent it glory? But if they hadent I suppose it would have been treason, and they would have been bowin and scrapin round King George for pardon. So it goes, Artemus, and to my mind, if the whole thing was stewed down, it would make about a half a pint of humbug. We had good men, great men, Christian men, who thought we was right, and many of 'em have gone to the undiskovered country, and have got a pardon as is a pardon. When I die, I'm mity willin to risk myself under the shadow of their wings, whether the climate be hot or cold. So mote it be. Selah!

Well, maybe I've said enuf. But don't feel easy yit. I'm a good Union man, sertin and sure. I've had my breeches died blue, and I've got a blue bucket, and I very often feel blue, and about twice in a while I go to the doggery and git blue, and then I look up at the blue serulean heavens and sing the melankolly choryus of the Blue tailed Fly. I'm doing my durndest to harmonize and think I could succeed if it was'nt for some things. When I see a black guard going around the streets with a gun on his shoulders, why right then, for a few minutes, I hate the whole Yanky nation. Jerusalem, how my blood biles. The institution what was handed down to us by the heavenly kingdom of Massachusetts now put over us with powder and ball! Harmonize the devil! Aint we human beings? Aint we got eyes and ears and feelin and thinkin? Why the whole of Afriky has come to town, women and children and babies and baboons and all. A man can tell how fur it is to the city by the smell better than the mile-post. They won't work for us, and they won't work for themselves, and they'll perish to death this winter as shore as the devil is a hog, so-called. They are now bask- ing in the summer's sun, living on roastin ears and freedom, with nary idee that the winter will cum agin, or that castor oil and salts cost money. Sum of 'em, a hundred years old, are whinin around about goin to cawledge. The truth is, my friend, sumbody's badly fooled about this bizness. Sum- body has drawd the elefant in the lottery, and don't know what to do with him. He's just throwin his snout about loose, and by-and-by he'l hurt sum- body. These niggers will have to go back to the plantations and work. I ain't going to support nary one of 'em, and when you hear anybody say so, you tell 'em "its a lie," so-called. I golly, I ain't got nuthin to support myself on. We fout our- selves out of everything exceptin children and land, and I suppose the land are to be turned over to the niggers for grave-yard.

Well, my friend, I don't want much. I aint am- bitious, as I used to was. You all have got your cows and monkeys and sirkusses and brass bands and orgins, and can play on the petrolyum and the harp of a thousand strings, and so on, but I, ve only ask one favor to ax of you. I want enuf powedr to kill a big yaller stum-tail dog that prowls round my premises at night. Pon honor, I wont shoot at anything blue or black or mulatter. Will you send it? Are you and your foaks so skeered of me and my foaks, that you wont let us have any amyni- shun? Are the squirrels and crows and black rakoons to eat up our poor little corn patches? Are the wild turkeys to gobble all around us with impunity? If a mad-dog takes the hiderfoby, is the whole community to run itself to death to get out of the way? I golly! It looks like your pepul had all tuk the rebelfoby for good, and was never gwine to git over it. See here, my friend, you must send me a little powder and a ticket to your show, and me and you will harmonize sertin.

With these few remarks I think I feel better, and hope I haint made nobody fitin mad, for I'm not on that line at this time. I am trooly your friend—all ent or accounted for. BILL ARP, so-called.

P. S.—Old man Harris wanted to buy my fiddle the other day with Confedrik money. He said it would be good agin. He says that Jim Funderbuk told him that Warren's Jack seed a man who had jest cum from Virginny, and he sed that a man told his cousin Mandy that Lee had whipped em agin. Old Harris says that a man by the name of Mack C. Million is coming over with a million of men. But nevertheless, notwithstanding, somehow or somehow else, I'm dubus about the money. If you was me, Artemus, would you make the fiddle trade?

HOW THE WESTERN INDIANS FIGHT.—A correspondent of a Cincinnati paper, describing a recent attack on a Government train on the Western plains, has the following as to the Indian method of fighting.:

They rarely, if ever attack except on horseback; and each man keeps his horse on the run, riding generally in a circle, so as to avoid shots, discharging in the meantime showers of bullets and arrows, and shouting to stampede the animals. When a weapon is pointed at one of them, he shelters himself almost entirely by hanging over one side of his horse, and from this position continues firing. Dashing suddenly upon a train in this manner, they can often discharge a great number of shots before the teamsters, taken by surprise, and encumbered by the care of their teams, can make any organized or effective resistance, and if unsuccessful in their attempts to shoot the drivers or stampede the animals, they are often able to make good their retreat without serious loss. The principal defence against an attack of a formidable nature is to form a corral, which furnishes a considerable protection, and cases have occurred where corrals have been beseiged for several days, by large bodies of Indians too numerous to be encountered on the open plain.

Although arrows are still much used, many of the Indians are well armed with rifles and revolvers, though some of them at least do not understand the use of the breech-loading guns, and they have been known to leave captured weapons of that description, after breaking so as to render them useless.

MR. DAVIS' FAMILY.—A Montreal correspondent of the Le Canadien imparts the following paragraph:

The children of Jefferson Davis have been for some time in Canada, as is well known. The two boys are just now in Chambly, and about to enter Lennoxville College. The young girl, nine years of age, is a pupil at the convent of the Sacred Heart, Sault-au-Recollects. Last Sabbath several Southern refugees went to see her. They brought with them the Federal General Cochrane, whom they introduced to the girl, telling her that he was a friend of the Southern cause, although circumstances constrained him to fight in the ranks of its enemies. The child, looking to the General, answered: "I shall believe that you are one of the friends of our cause when you shall have obtained the release of father." The General was deeply moved with this answer, and promised the child to use all his influence on behalf of Mr. Jefferson Davis.

The English police is horrified by the announcement, made in much detail by the press, that Prince Arthur's carriage was lately jostled by the hub of a dirt cart at Blairgowrie. But for the fact that the royal horses were going at a slow walk, serious damage might have been done. As it was, the accident was without results, except in the absurd paragraph which chronicles it in the newspapers.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, NOV. 2, 1865 NO. 300.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

ORDINANCE REVOKED.—Our city fathers passed an ordinance, at their meeting on Saturday evening last, making it an offence, punishable by fine, for a colored person to stand behind a counter in the capacity of a clerk. The Commandant of this post, as we are informed, has decided that the city authorities could not enforce such a law.

We undertake to say, however, that the city authorities, in passing such an ordinance, did not suppose, (or intend,) that they were doing anything in contradistinction to what they believed to be their duty to the well-being of society. It was far from them to take any power from its legitimate source, as they evidently would not offer insult to those who are at present put here to govern. If they had not seen, or believed they saw, evil resulting from the freedman's traffic in spirituous liquors, they would have taken no action in the matter.

We trust, however, that our city police of thirty men will be enabled to quell riot, and otherwise put down disorder.

INTERESTING TO PHOTOGRAPHERS.—The following important decision has just been received from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in reply to a letter written to him in relation to photographers. The Commissioner, in referring to the letter, says: You state that the porcelain being transparent, the stamp destroys the symmetry of the picture, and you inquire whether the provisions of the law would not be complied with were the manufacturer to pay an ad valorem tax thereon.

In answer, I have to say that the late Commissioner did authorize monthly returns in cases similar to the above, for some time prior to March 3, 1865, with the the idea that Congress would give the photographers the relief desired; but as that was denied, the Commissioner did not feel authorized to grant further indulgence, and has since required a full compliance with the law. Known violations of the law will be promptly prosecuted.

IMPROVEMENTS.—A stroll through the city yesterday morning afforded us a better idea of the improvements being made than we have heretofore had. It is true that there are but few costly undertakings in hand at present, owing to the want of capital, but enough is seen to show the determination of the people to have houses enough for the accommodation of themselves and their trade operations. In every section we could hear and see the hammer and other tools contributing to the new era of business life upon which Raleigh has entered. It is hopeful and healthful to observe this spirit of activity, and we receive it is as indisputable indication that as soon as money can be had, such general prosperity will be seen among our population as has been heretofore unknown.

IN A NEW DRESS.—The last issue of the Newbern Times comes to us in an enlarged form, eight pages instead of four, as originally established. The type are new and our friends, Messrs. Vestal & NcKnight, deserve what they are receiving: large patronage.— By their present arrangement they can accommodate their friends who advertise and yet have room sufficient to make the Times a full and reliable newspaper. The typography is excellent and few newspapers in the South are more carefully and ably managed.

RESPONDING.—We are glad to hear that the citizens generally are very cheerfully responding to the summons of the Mayor pro tem. with respect to handing in lists of taxable property. Some few seem a little reluctant, but will have to come to the scratch at last. Indeed, law and order, as well as improvement, can only be maintained through the agency of taxation. Let all, then, toe the mark promptly, and do all that is needful to make the city prosperous.

HOMES FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN.—In many charities the South is far behind the North. We see that since the conclusion of the war Philadelphia and other cities have nobly undertaken to provide homes for friendless children. A similar necessity exists for founding such homes in our section, and we hope that Raleigh will not fail in providing for the orphans made by the war or from other causes.

BETTING.—We regret to hear that there is a large disposition among the friends of different candidates for different offices, to indulge in election bets. We have seldom known it to fail in producing wrangling and alienation, and, therefore, beg them to keep cool. The questions at issue are far too important to be associated with speculation.

SEVEN HUNDRED.—In Tuesday's Standard a list of nearly seven hundred pardons appeared. This is wholesale, but eminently wise, as showing the disposition of the Governor towards a large number of the very men who most roundly abuse him.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION—which meets at Wake Forrest next Monday—is expected to attract full representation from every part of the State. It will be well, therefore, to make every possible arrangement for accommodating the members.

ANOTHER.—Mr. H. O. Parker this morning proclaims himself a candidate for the House of Commons from Wake.

"James Monroe, the sixth President of the United States, died in York so poor that his remains found a resting place through the charity of one of his friends. They remain in a cemetery in School street, but no monument marks the spot where they repose."

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

SIRS: I clip the above from your paper of the 7th inst., which may mislead some of your readers as to a historic fact, which I know you will readily correct.

Ex-President Monroe died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Samuel L. Gouverneur, in the city of New York, where the warmest filial tenderness soothed his latter days. He was buried in New York by his relatives, and not by the charity of his friends. In 1858, under escort of the New York Seventh Regiment, his remains were removed with great pomp and ceremony to Richmond, and on the 5th of July following were reinterred in Hollywood Cemetery, near that city, where they now repose.— This State, as a token of its high appreciation of the distinguished services of her son, caused to be erected a splendid monument to his memory. The remains of his beloved and amiable consort still rest in the family burying-ground at Oak Hill, in this county, the President's residence, which is ten miles south of our county town. The property now belongs to Col. John Minor Fairfax, who has inherited many of the good qualities of his ancestors who settled here during the reign of George III.

I am, dear sirs, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
WM. B. DOWNEY.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature in the House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my vote on all occasions will be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

Letter from the Editor.

WILLARD'S HOTEL,
Washington, October 27.

I arrived here at half-past two this afternoon, lying over at Richmond last night.

The trip from Raleigh to Washington can now be made, however, without any break in the connections, and is one of interest, though mournful and sad, to one who has not made it in four years. It is not very pleasant to get up at 3 o'clock to take the 5 A. M. train at Raleigh, but better do that than be left and lose 24 hours. The railroads are in fair order, make fair time, and seem to be well managed. I was bored coming out from Raleigh by hearing a parson of secession proclivities explain his plan, to a plain farmer, for making the "Yankees" pay for the negroes. Will fanatical preachers never be cured of nigger on the brain?

From Gaston to Petersburg the trip is full of sad memories. The lone chimneys and ruins that greet the eye as you near Petersburg, is a sad commentary on the boasted christianity and civilization of the age. O, the horrors of the fratricidal war through which this country has just passed. Petersburg is slowly but steadily recovering from the effects of the siege. At Jarratt's and Reams' station, before you reach the city, the brick chimneys are about all that is left to mark the recent abode of wealth and comfort; and from Belfield to Washington the ravages of war are visible on every hand. At Richmond, there is considerable bustle and business, but the immense ruins of the conflagration of April sadly mar the former beauty of the place.

From Richmond to Aquia Creek, the earthworks, felled timber, remnants of camps, and other marks of those fierce engagements and protracted campaigns that marked the war, are full of interest to one who has not before been on the ground. At Fredericksburg we had a pretty good view of the battle-field of Fredericksburg, in which Burnside's army was defeated and driven back across the Rappahannock, and the chimneys of the house where the commanding General had his headquarters during the desperate engagements, some two miles distant, were pointed out to curious passengers. Should have been glad of an opportunity to stroll a day or two around the old town that I might have got a more perfect history of the scenes and events that were there enacted, but could not spare the time.

I find Washington full of bustle, and the hotels full of politicians, office-seekers and pardon-seekers. Gen. Schofield and the Tunis Embassy are among the guests at this hotel.

The rumor that the Secretary of the Navy has ordered all armed or naval vessels to get ready for active service, has caused considerable speculation; and soothsayers begin to see a spec of war between the United States and Great Britain.

The finding has not been made known in the Wirz case, but a rumor got out to-day that he was to be hung to-morrow. It is said that Wirz expects that hanging will be his fate.

The papers give out, positively, that the trial of Mr. Davis is to proceed at once, here or at Richmond, before the Supreme Court; but, as they have given out the same thing a number of times before, there may be some mistake about it this time.

I have seen only a few of the many leading gentlemen connected with the government, to whom I have letters, but enough to satisfy me that the President and others take great interest in the coming elections in North Carolina. The defeat of Gov. Holden, should such an unfortunate event occur, will cause not only surprise but misgivings as to the future among the best friends of the State here. All express great surprise, including the President, that Gov. Holden should have opposition, for they deplore the division among our people which they know must have caused it.

I will write more at length after I see more of Washington and its officials, and surroundings.

P.

SATURDAY, 28TH.

The morning papers have but little news. The Tunisians had an interview with Secretary Seward yesterday, and were shown around town. The Chronicle says that the rumor that all war vessels had been ordered to get ready for sea is a canard.

This is a beautiful clear day, with a bracing atmosphere, and the display on the streets is fine. Shall close, to be ready for the mail, but will write again before leaving here. P.

AN official investigation into the causes of the disability of officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps has disclosed the fact that eighty-two per cent. have been disabled by wounds received in battle, four per cent. by accidental injuries, and fourteen per cent. by disease contracted while in the service.

THE census of New York city, under the management of the State authorities, is so close to completion that the aggregate is attained, or so near it that the final returns will vary but a few figures. It is estimated upon the basis already obtained that the population of that city is about 722,569 persons.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE MAJOR WM. F. COLLINS a candidate to represent Granville county in the House of Commons of the ensuing Legislature. His sentiments will be published in the form of a circular "To the People of Granville." Read it. oct31-tde

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.
The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.
He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people.
I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.
It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.
Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESSional District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:
FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass.—Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all.—The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be agitating, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.
If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A H ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

Gentlemen—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IN NEW YORK.—The New York World, in an article on the Central Park, has the following:

Among the talk of the patrons of the turf in the track is one upon the celebrated "Lady of the Dawn." She is described as being very beautiful, but of strange pallidness and silence. She enters the park at the earliest hour of the morning, and rides rapidly up the most secluded bridle paths, never accompanied by any one, and refusing to speak or halt with anybody. She always wore a coal black hat, plume and skirt, and dark gloves, but she is without a riding whip. After a half hour's ride she emerges, and is never seen to enter the park gates at any other time of the day. Her countenance is very melancholy; nobody seems to know her; she is so much of a mystery that the policemen only call her the "Lady of the Dawn."

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.
By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
